During the reign of king Veer, there lived a wise megistrate. Haripant's verdicts were always just and people from the kingdom came to him to settle their disputes. In the city there was a greedy ghee merchant, Niranjan. He always kept twenty barrels of ghee. Of these, fifteen would contain good quality ghee and the remaining would be adulterated. He would mix the two and sell it. After a long time people fed up of being cheated, complained to Haripant.

Haripant two verified and confirmed the adulteration. He gave Niranjana a choice of punishment, drink and five barrels of adulterated ghee, or receive a hundred lashings, or pay a thousand gold coins of the treasury. Niranjana chose to drink the ghee. Through Niranjana sold adulterated goods, he was keen on his food's purity. After drinking one barrel he became sick. By the second one, he was vomiting. At this point he decided to opt for the lashings instead. But he was pampered and his body was unused to any harsh treatment. After 10 lashes he started trembling and by twenty he was giddy. "Stop!" he screamed. "I will pay the thousand gold coin!". And he handed them over.

So, he ended up suffering all three punishments, something he did not forget in a hurry and the people of the city got to use only the best quality ghee in their food from then on!

Questions :

- (a) Why did Niranjana keep five barrels of adulterated ghee?
- (b) Why did the people decide to go to Haripant with their complaint?

- (c) Why did Haripant allow Niranjan to choose his own punishment?
- (d) Why did Niranjan decide to drink adulterated ghee for his punishment?
- (e) How did Haripant arrive at the conclusion that Niranjan sold adulterated ghee?
