3. Read the following passage and answer the questions given below. (5)

There is a general slackness and dislike of unnecessary exertion among our younger people. It affects their religion, which they like to have given them, like everything else, in tabloid form, and without any irksome demands upon the energies. This is certainly not the way of the cross and it compares badly with Michelangelo's words. 'Nothing makes the soul so pure, so religious, as the endeavour to create something perfect; for God is perfection, and who ever strives for perfection strives for something that is Godlike; or with Newton's "Genius is patience'.

- (a) What is disliked by the younger people?
- (b) What makes the soul pure according to Michael Angelo?
- (c) What is Newton's maxim?
- (d) What does the man of perfection strive for?
- (e) What picture does the author paint about the younger generation?
